A Call to Men: National Association of Men and Women Committed to Ending Violence Against Women is a leading national men's organization addressing violence against women and sexism. By Organizing within colleges, corporations, grassroots and non-profit organizations and government agencies across the United States, its vision is to shift social norms that define manhood in our culture. Through seminars, workshops and other educational vehicles, A Call to Men challenges men to reconsider their long held beliefs about women, in an effort to create a more just society.

For over a quarter of a century, Safe Horizon has been at the forefront of helping victims of crime and abuse. As the leading provider of services for victims of violence in New York City, we are here where and when you need us – in the courts, in the community and at the other end of a telephone at any hour of the day or night.

Tony Porter, the Co-founder of A Call To Men, is an educator and activist who has been working in the social justice arena for over twenty years. He is nationally and internationally recognized for his effort to end men's violence against women.
